SECRETARY VISTA

MRS. PRIYA SELVAMANI
(GENERAL SECRETARY)

Warm Greetings to all our JournalLords readers. As you would read this Annual Report by our students and teachers, we would have already completed the academic year (2021-2022). It seems like we just started an academic year in March 2021. We begin, with the basic premise that the purpose of our life is to seek happiness. It is a vision of happiness as a real objective, one that we can take positive steps toward achieving said by a famous writer Dalai Lama. The Art of Happiness, we seem to have completed the last academic year with a sense of contentment. As we look back at our pathway, we are reminded of the below quotes. To become successful in your ambition and vision, you need to think like the men of thought and work like the men of action. To emerge successful in your ambition you need to exercise studiousness, perseverance, and endurance.

WORLD WILDLIFE DAY

On 20 December 2013, at its 68th session, the United Nations General Assembly (UNGA) proclaimed 3 March – the day of signature of the Convention on International Trade in Endangered Species of Wild Fauna and Flora (CITES) in 1973 – as UN World Wildlife Day to celebrate and raise awareness of the world's wild animals and plants. The UNGA resolution also designated the CITES Secretariat as the facilitator for the global observance of this special day for wildlife on the UN calendar. World Wildlife Day has now become the most important global annual event dedicated to wildlife.

This year, World Wildlife Day (WWD) has been celebrated under the theme “Recovering key species for ecosystem restoration”. The celebrations sought to draw attention to the conservation status of some of the most critically endangered species of wild fauna and flora, and to drive discussions towards imagining and implementing solutions to conserve them.

INTERNATIONAL WOMENS DAY

International Women's Day (IWD) is a global holiday celebrated annually on March 8 to commemorate the cultural, political, and socioeconomic achievements of women. It is also a focal point in the women's rights movement, bringing attention to issues such as gender equality, reproductive rights, and violence and abuse against women. Spurred on by the universal female suffrage movement that had begun in New Zealand, IWD originated from labor movements in North America and Europe during the early 20th century. The earliest version was purportedly a "Women's Day" organized by the Socialist Party of America in New York City February 28, 1909. The program started with a prayer song and we welcomed our Secretary madam

Mrs. Priya Selvamani and our Principal Mrs. Lalitha. Our tiny kids expressed their talents through fancy dress. Then we had a group song and dances. All the students have enjoyed the program. Our secretary mam gave an energetic and a motivating speech to the young generations. They took an oath to treat the women equally. then we presented a gift on the occasion of womens day. The program ended with the national anthem.

WORLD THEATRE DAY

World Theatre Day was initiated in 1962 by the International Theatre Institute (ITI). It is celebrated annually on 27 March by ITI Centres and the international theatre community. Various national and international theatre events are organized to mark this occasion. One of the most important of these is the circulation of the World Theatre Day International Message through which at the invitation of ITI, a figure of world stature shares his or her reflections on the theme of Theatre and a Culture of Peace.

The first World Theatre Day International Message was written by Jean Cocteau (France) in 1962. It was first in Helsinki, and then in Vienna at the 9th World Congress of the ITI in June 1961 that President Arvi Kivimaa proposed on behalf of the Finnish Centre of the International Theatre Institute that a World Theatre Day be instituted. The proposal, backed by the Scandinavian centres, was carried with acclamation.

Organic farming in simple terms is a kind of agricultural practice where harmful chemical fertilizers, pesticides and insecticides are not used. It is primarily based on developing and cultivating land using only natural input such as soil, water, and air. The purpose of organic farming is to develop healthy and nutritious crops as well as save our environment from degradation and pollution, human civilisation.

Organic farming is a technique in which cultivation of land takes place through sustainable manner using natural resources like air, water and soil. Organic farming does not necessarily mean that man-made chemicals are not used.

In many organic farming methods, man-made fertilizers and pesticides are used not to improve crop production but to improve soil fertility. Which means that these chemicals are going directly into the soil and not into the food we consume. The difference between organic and inorganic farming is that in organic farming the chemicals help improve soil fertility and does not percolate into the crops but in inorganic farming, the chemicals degrade the soil fertility and make the soil barren after agricultural output and also results in these chemicals percolating into the food and ultimately into our food chains. Harmful chemicals such as zinc, lead and manganese that are present in pesticides and herbicides are consumed by human beings which can have grave dangers on our health.

Some of the major advantages of organic farming are that the production of healthy and quality agricultural output is relatively more as compared to inorganic farming. Also, organic farming is environmentally friendly since it helps improve soil fertility and thereby the repeated usage of that particular patch of land for agricultural purposes is possible. This, in turn, helps in reducing deforestation caused due to agricultural practices.

TABLE TENNIS HISTORY

Table tennis, also known as ping-pong and whiff-whaff, is a sport in which two or four players hit a lightweight ball, also known as the ping-pong ball, back and forth across a table using small rackets.

Table tennis is governed by the worldwide organization International Table Tennis Federation (ITTF), founded in 1926. ITTF currently includes 226 member associations.

Table tennis has been an Olympic sport since 1988, with several event categories. From 1988 until 2004, these were men's singles, women's singles, men's doubles and women's doubles. Since 2008, a team event has been played instead of the doubles. The sport originated in Victorian England, where it was played among the upper-class as an after-dinner parlour game. It has been suggested that makeshift versions of the game were developed by British military officers in India around the 1860s or 1870s, who brought it back with them.

The name "ping-pong" was in wide use before British manufacturer J. Jaques & Son Ltd trademarked it in 1901. Parker Brothers then enforced its trademark for the term in the 1920s, making the various associations change their names to "table tennis" instead of the more common, but trademarked, term.

Although both a "Table Tennis Association" and a "Ping Pong Association" existed by 1910, a new Table Tennis Association was founded in 1921, and renamed the English Table Tennis Association in 1926. London hosted the first official World Championships in 1926. Table tennis was introduced as an Olympic sport at the Olympics in 1988.
