EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY

Educational psychology is the study of how people learn, including teaching methods, instructional processes, and individual differences in learning. It explores the cognitive, behavioral, emotional, and social influences on the learning process. Educational psychologists use this understanding of how people learn to develop instructional strategies and help students succeed in school.

This branch of psychology focuses on the learning process of early childhood and adolescence. However, it also explore the social, emotional, and cognitive processes that are involved in learning throughout the entire lifespan. The field of educational psychology incorporates a number of other disciplines, including developmental psychology, behavioral psychology and cognitive psychology. Approaches to educational psychology include behavioral, developmental, cognitive, constructivist, and experiential perspectives.

Topics in Educational Psychology

From the materials teachers use to the individual needs of students, educational psychologists delve deep to more fully understand the learning process. Some these topics of study in educational psychology include:

- EDUCATIONAL TECHNOLOGY : Looking at how different types of technology can help students learn.
- INSTRUCTIONAL DESIGN : Designing effective learning materials.
- SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL : Helping students who may need specialized instruction.
- CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT : Creating coursework that will maximize learning.
- ORGANIZATIONAL LEARNING : Studying how people learn in organizational settings, such as workplaces.
- GIFTED LEARNERS : Helping students who are identified as gifted learners.

"Triumphant Steps: ESLIS Montessori Kids Marathon Adventure!"

Roaring cheers filled the air on August 21, 2023, a vibrant Monday, as the ESLIS campus transformed into a playground of dreams for our Montessori wonders. The stage was set for the Kids Marathon – not a battle of first, middle, or last, but a symphony of 'I have finished' echoing with pure satisfaction.

Gathered at the starting line were the spirited contenders from Mont I and Mont II, each adorned with their racing badges, ready to etch their mark. With the wave of a hand, our revered principal, Mr. Gunasekaran, unleashed the excitement. From the Mont block to the heart of the school ground, the race unfolded, a tapestry of determination and youthful exuberance.

An electric blend of anxiety and nerves coursed through the young racers, yet in that cauldron of emotions, a true champion emerged. Their triumphant strides paved the way to victory, but even for those who didn't cross the finish line first, a different kind of triumph was celebrated – the unbreakable spirit to conquer the challenge.

As the sun painted the sky with hues of accomplishment, the marathon turned into more than just a race. It became a canvas of life lessons – of setting foot on a path, of pushing limits, and of embracing the sheer joy of participation. In the end, every drop of sweat, every pounding heartbeat, painted a masterpiece of courage and tenacity.

The ESLIS Montessori Kids Marathon wasn't just an event; it was an experience that will forever shine in the hearts of these young achievers. The curtains closed on this triumphant spectacle, leaving behind echoes of cheers, memories of shared determination, and the undeniable truth that in every finish, a new beginning beckons..

"Embracing the Verdant Vibes: Unveiling the Magic of Green!"

Dazzling shades of green took center stage on July 31, 2023, as we embarked on a journey into the captivating world of this vibrant hue. The day was a symphony of learning, where young minds delved into the secrets of green's significance and its positive influence on our lives.

Imagine a spectacle of eye-catching charts and drawings, all in the lushness of green. Our little champions, adorned in enchanting green costumes, radiated boundless excitement, creating an atmosphere that was as refreshing as a cool breeze on a summer's day.

But this was no ordinary celebration—oh no! Craft activities flourished, each one paying homage to the glorious green spectrum. And oh, the magic didn't stop there. Picture the scene: our young Lordians, brimming with confidence and enthusiasm, took the stage to deliver succinct yet impactful speeches about the profound meaning of the color green.

The air was infused with the very essence of vitality as the myriad shades of green enveloped everyone with their aura of freshness, excitement, and pure joy. As the day unfolded, minds pondered the incredible energy that green breathes into our lives, revitalizing and rejuvenating us in ways we might never have imagined.

In the end, it wasn't just a celebration; it was an invigorating experience that left a lasting impression on all fortunate enough to be a part of it. So here's to the color green, the essence of life and vitality!

Literary Legacy

Muthukumaran of VIII - A2

Gifts 7 Tamil Treasures to School Library!

In a remarkable gesture, Muthukumaran from VIIIA2 added his birthday sparkle to the school's literary tapestry. With commendable grace, he dedicated 7 rich Tamil books to the library's shelves. A true patron of words, his gift echoes beyond his celebration, leaving a legacy of knowledge and love for generations to come.

Spectacular Patriotism: Unforgettable Independence Day Bash!

Drenched in the colors of patriotism, the 77th year of Independence set the school mont campus ablaze on August 14, 2023. Hearts thumped with pride as the air buzzed with excitement.

The stage was set, and the celebration ignited like a starburst.

Enthusiasm radiated like a second sun, infecting all – students, teachers, and spectators alike. A passionate Tamil debate added intellectual sparks to the patriotic fire, showcasing the brilliance of young minds. As the finale approached, the principal took the stage once more, a guiding light. His words of appreciation were applause to the stars – students and teachers alike, who had made the event a masterpiece.

The students, the heartbeat of the event, spun a web of magic. Their voices turned into anthems of freedom, their steps into tales of valor. Speeches soared, drama unfolded, mime painted emotions, and dances wove stories. An umbrella dance brought a sprinkle of joy, uniting hearts under a vibrant kaleidoscope.

With a melodious prayer song that seemed to touch the heavens, the day kicked off in perfect harmony. A mesmerizing bharatanatyam performance followed, weaving tales of tradition and unity

And then, as the last note of unity echoed, the entire gathering stood as one, voices raised in unison to the anthem that binds hearts – the national anthem. The curtain fell on this extraordinary spectacle, leaving behind memories etched in the book of time, a testament to the undying spirit of freedom.

"Monday Magic: School Friendship Day Vibes, Unleashed!"

Even though Sunday missed the memo, Monday became the canvas for a vibrant eruption of school friendship. Trendy hues and lively vibes replaced the usual routine. High-fives and hashtags ruled as students sported chic wristbands and bands.

Laughter echoed alongside the beats of the latest playlist, capturing memories at every click of the trendy photo booths. Snacks were shared, secrets exchanged, forging friendships as unbreakable as the coolest hashtags. In the end, Monday showcased that friendship isn't bound by calendars; it's a timeless celebration woven into every vibrant moment of school life.

Poem

A Snowflake

Winter came and then snow fell,
From the sky to the floor.
What excitement I can't tell,
Snow came to stop bore.
A snowflake may be tiny,
But sure it was so elegant.
Different from the any,
Different from what you want.
We are like a snowflake,
We have different lives to make.

ONEDAY

Stories are like kaleidoscope of memories,
Flashing lights and colours in frequencies.
Never knew that the faces will remain like good-byes,
Wondering how to fast forward time just like
it flies,
Because i want to see your face, hold your hands
Have a laugh and sob as ourtime stands.
One day, we will be all that we dreamt to be,
One day, we will see all that we wanted to see.
Far away, a million seconds from today, our moments linger,
Wait a while, just like you did yesterday, our souls will meet each other.

An Alumnus of Elumalai Polytechnic

Emerging from the vibrant canvas of Tamil Nadu's Villupuram, Dr. Veeramuthuvel of ISRO has ascended to cosmic heights. A mastermind propelling the monumental Chandrayaan 3 mission, he's the visionary captain, sculpting lunar fantasies into tangible truth.

As applause echoes for Chandrayaan 3's triumphant echo, the spotlight graces the architect of this historic marvel the ingenious Dr. Veeramuthuvel.

From Elumalai Polytechnic college to IIT Madras brilliance, his path gleams with radiance. Rising as ISRO's senior scientist, he steers our lunar odyssey.

In the recent lunar ballet, Chandrayaan-3 gracefully pirouetted from Sriharikota's cradle to moon's floor, all orchestrated by Dr. Veeramuthuvel's genius. A true local luminary, his legacy etched in moon dust, a tribute to unwavering persistence and boundless brilliance – an alumnus of our very own Elumalai Polytechnic College.
